

Data narrative

In the 2019-2020 fiscal year, Oakland spent $343,917,351 on Police out of a total budget of $3,304,104,200. This represents 10.4% of the general spending in Oakland, CA.

Visualization of all departments

All of the departments

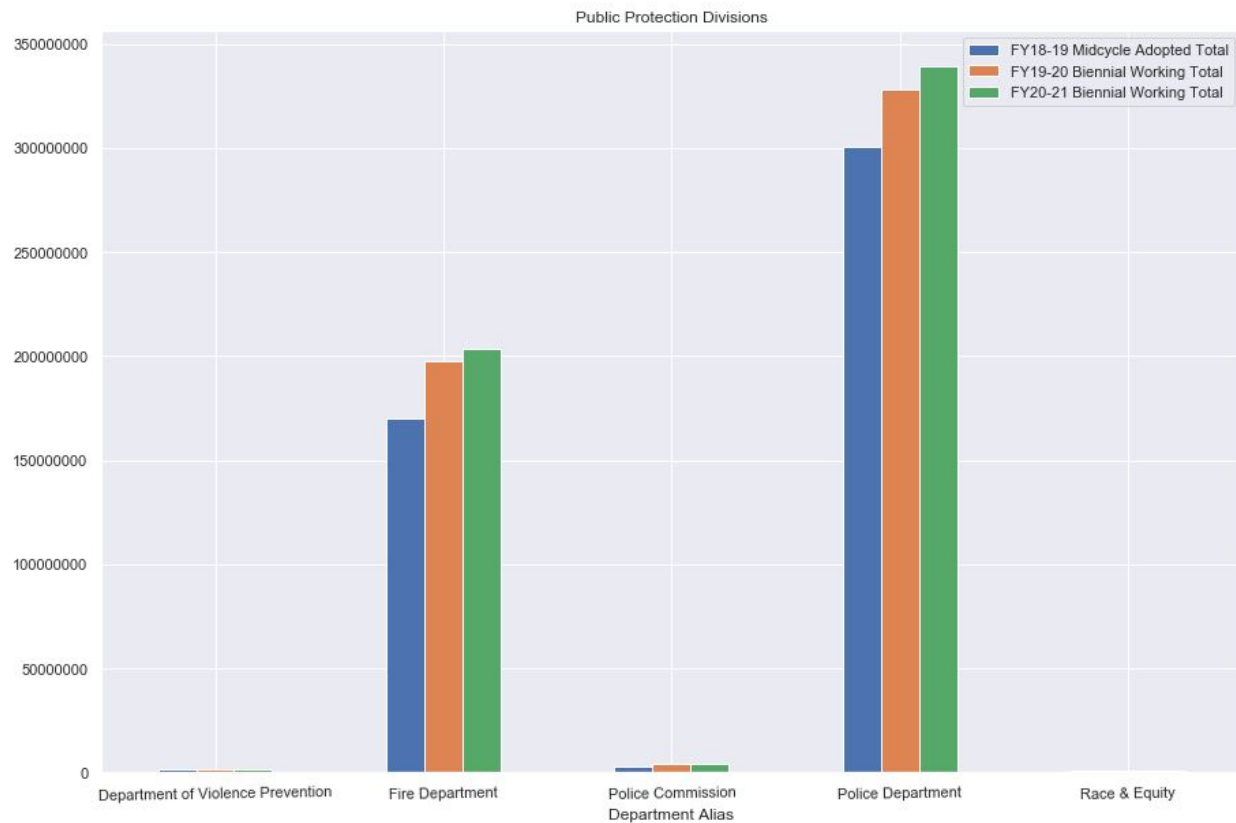

This data can be divided into three fiscal years: 2018-2019, 2019-2020, and 2020-2021. Within this time the total budget for Oakland City has increased yearly, however, the Police Budget has increased relatively proportionally. In the 2018-2019, the 2019-2020, and the 2020-2021 categories the Police Budget made up 10.21%, 10.03%, and 10.41% of the total, respectively.

The data was aggregated into various sectors. First we will look at the divisions involved in public protection. Public Protection is divided into Race & Equity, Department of Violence Prevention, Fire Department, Police Commission, and Police Department.

The current working total(FY20-21) of Public protection is 540 million.

This division of this sector emphasizes that the vast majority of resources are allocated to the Police Department especially when compared to Race & Equity and the Department of Violence Prevention.

Comparing all division involved in public protection

Closer look of these divisions

The Police Commision oversees the Police Department. This includes the Office of the Inspector General, which audits the police department as well as reviews policies/procedures. This is where citizens go to file police misconduct reports. This sector was given $4,320,062 in 2020-2021.

There is a different department called the Department of Violence Prevention. The goals of this department are to reduce homicides, gun related violence, domestic violence, and exploitation of children. This department was given $1,177,495.

The field operations of the fire department are involved in fire suppression, emergency medical response, and rescue. This department was given $203,370,848 as part of the biennial working total.

Race & Equity has consistently had the lowest budget in the available dataset. This department was given $759,313 as part of the biennial working total.

Overtime visualization of the sectors involved in Public Protection

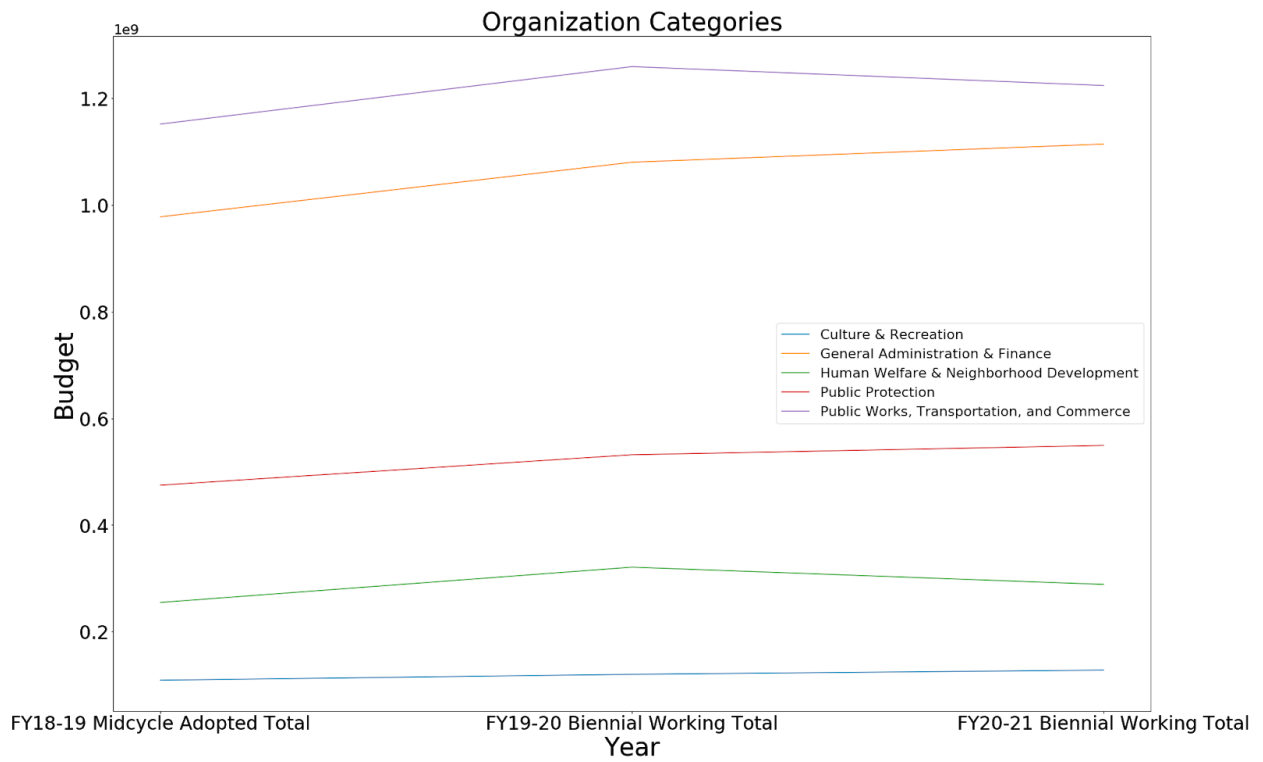

Department Alias	FY18-19 Midcycle Adopted Total	FY19-20 Biennial Working Total	FY20-21 Biennial Working Total
Department of Violence Prevention	1129204.0	1150190.0	1177495.0
Fire Department	169822143.0	197596810.0	203370848.0
Police Commission	2963773.0	4101998.0	4320062.0
Police Department	300247481.0	328154169.0	339597289.0
Race & Equity	562175.0	737915.0	759313.0

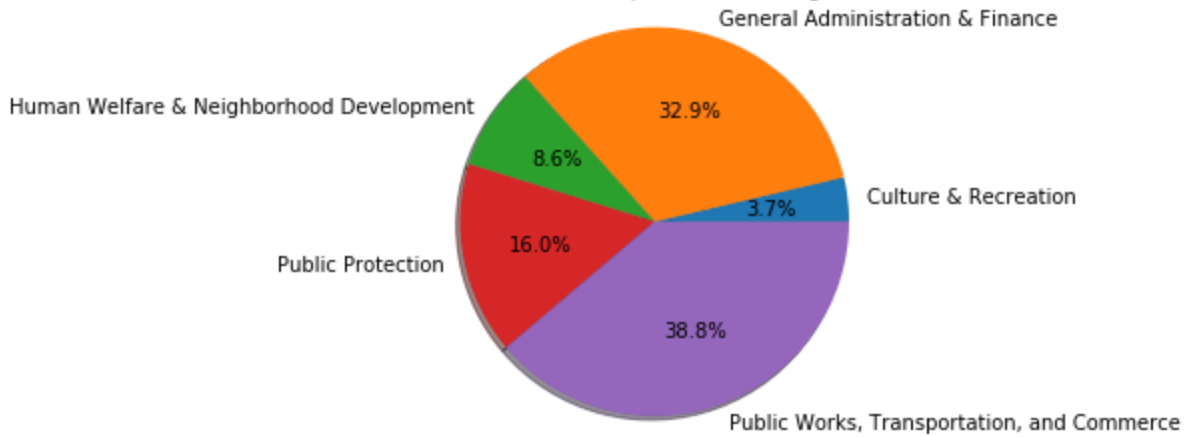

Relationship of these five categories to the total budget

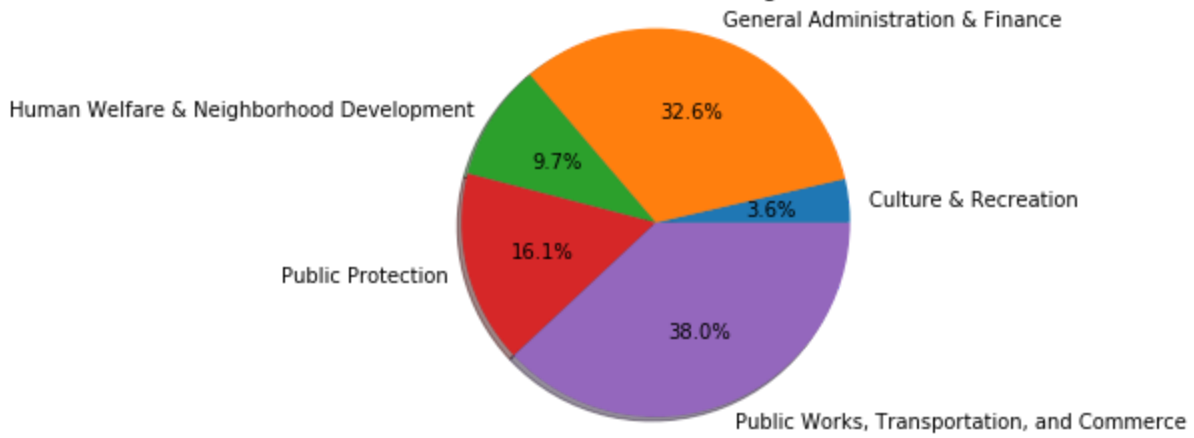

Aggregation of the data into Culture & Recreation, General Administration & Finance, Human Welfare, Public Protection, and Public Works, Transportation, and Commerce.

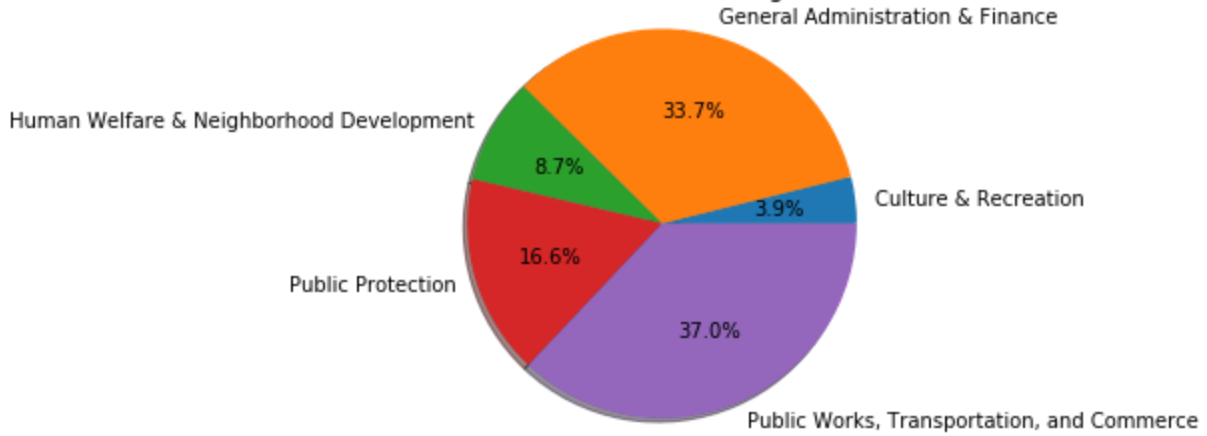

2018-2019 Adopted Total Budgets

2019-2020 Total Budget

2020-2021 Total Budget

All data was taken from the link below.

<https://data.oaklandnet.com/Financial/FY-2019-21-Biennial-Proposed-Budget/aeya-c8st>

Explanation on the budget(What each department does.)

<https://cao-94612.s3.amazonaws.com/documents/FY-2019-21-Adopted-Budget-Policy-Book-FINAL-WEB-VERSION.pdf>